PERHAPS MUNDY IS NOT INSANE.

TAKE FROM AN ASYLUM TO A COURT.

TESTIMONY THAT STARTLED JUSTICE BARTLETT—

WIDOW CHRISTIAN INTERESTED.

Justice Bartlett spent the greater part of yesterday afternoon in the Brooklyn Supreme Court trying to ascertain whether Nathaniel Barrett Mundy is insane.

When he was sixteen years old he exhibited symptoms of insanity, and his father sent him to Bloomingdale Asylum. He remained there two years, at the end of which time he was sufficiently recovered to be sent home. Since then he has been suffering from insanity, some say, he began to exhibit symptoms of insanity. Others, however, declare that all he did was to spend money freely in decorating his home, to which he was to bring as his wife, on November 7, a Mrs. Chestnut, a bright young widow to whom he had become engaged.

On the day that he was to be married, the executor of his grandfather's will, his three sons, John T. Barrett, Abraham C. Wood and Charles T. Barrett, had placed in the Homeopathic Asylum for the Insane, at Manhattan, N. Y.

Mundy's stepmother, with whom he lived, protested against these proceedings, and as quickly as possible she obtained a writ of habeas corpus to produce Mundy yesterday. The young man came into court with his sister, Elizabeth Talbot, of the Manhattan Asylum, and with two other persons, one of whom was a physician, and he was taken to the court by a police officer.

HOMEOPATHY.—When the American

Medical Association met at Chicago last summer, it was the first time since the Civil War that a large number of physicians had gathered together to discuss the merits of the various schools of medicine.

The meeting was held in the Hotel Hamilton, and was attended by over 100 physicians from all over the United States. The subject of the meeting was the "Homeopathic Question," and the various schools of medicine were represented by their own physicians.
